

Corey Alt
(510) 599-3893
coreyalt.com

SUMMARY

Experienced policy analyst and political aide seeking opportunities to apply analytical skills and communications talents to interesting and important problems.

SKILLS

- Policy analysis: legislative, regulatory, budget
- Policy writing
- Legislative advocacy
- Media relations
- Speechwriting
- Copy editing
- Event planning, advance
- Operations and logistics
- Coalition management
- FEC Reporting
- Data analysis: R, Python
- FiscalNote
- HTML, CSS, Wordpress
- MS Office

EXPERIENCE

- Rep. Donna Mears, Chief of Staff, Juneau/Anchorage, AK Jan 2023-Present
- Managed policy portfolio for an active Freshman House member
 - Prepared member for daily committee sessions, floor, and meetings on numerous issues
 - Won amendments from the minority to put new language in major legislation and the budget
 - Organized legislative Food Strategy Task Force and drafted recommendations for upcoming report
 - Executed a constituent and press relations plan to build member's reputation as a policy-oriented thought leader
 - Op-ed in Anchorage Daily News examining the Governor's carbon sequestration proposal
 - Constituent newsletters diving deep on local policy issues like the Anchorage gas crisis
 - Leveraged role as chair of the Anchorage Delegation to raise profile with business and community leaders
 - Drafted press releases, floor speeches, mail pieces, and door hangers to drive our message across channels
- Adam Wool for Congress, Campaign Manager, Fairbanks, AK May-June 2023
- Ran my boss's brief campaign for Congress—raised and spent $16,000 in three weeks
 - Placed 12th of 50 candidates in the jungle primary, beating eventual winner Mary Peltola in the Fairbanks area
- Rep. Adam Wool, Legislative Assistant, Juneau/Fairbanks, AK Jan. 2022-Jan 2023
- Briefed the member on upcoming bill hearings, floor votes on select topics
 - Managed constituent service and correspondence programs
- Exponents Magazine, Contributor, Remote June 2021
- Medicare For All Would Leave US Healthcare Still a Bloated Mess, published 6/21/2021
- United Community Housing Coalition, Rental Assistance Counselor, Remote May 2021-Jan 2022
- Assisted struggling Detroit renters with pandemic rent relief applications
- Dr. Al Gross for US Senate, Deputy Operations Director, Anchorage, AK Sep.-Nov. 2020
- Handled purchasing and logistics to distribute signs and campaign literature around Alaska
 - Assured field teams could safely manage in-person volunteer events in a pandemic
 - Provided advance support for press conferences and speeches, and wrote candidate remarks
 - Onboarded new hires, arranging payroll, transit, expenses, and housing
- MJ Simon & Company, Government Relations Manager, Washington, DC Dec. 2018–Sep. 2020
- Executed a successful, multi-pronged strategy to preserve Medicaid non-emergency transportation benefits
 - Successfully placed new language in FY20 appropriations bill to delay promulgation of a proposed rule
 - Managed a coalition of 60+ advocacy organizations to sign comments on rules, letters to officials
 - Wrote and edited press releases, placing stories in multiple outlets to build awareness
 - Analyzed detailed policy issues—surprise billing, Medicare CED, NCCI edits—to inform client decision making
 - Monitored new legislative, regulatory, and appropriations measures for client impacts and opportunities
- Frank McNeill for Congress, Finance Director, Research Director, Southern Pines, NC May-Nov. 2018
- Managed call time, generating lists and coaching the candidate through long sessions
 - Organized successful fundraisers with top electeds in the state
 - Drafted and edited speeches, press releases, social media content, ad scripts, and direct mail pieces
- Venn Strategies, Paid Fellow, Washington, DC Jan.-April 2018
- U.S. Senate, Senator Chris Van Hollen, Legislative Intern, Washington, DC Aug.-Dec. 2017

EDUCATION

Grinnell College, Biology Major, Policy Studies Minor, Grinnell, IA – 3.3 GPA Fall 2013-Spring 2017